“The Foundation is thrilled to provide a new opportunity for donors to contribute to causes that present the greatest need in our community,” said Amy Eyman, Executive Director. “Fairfield County is continuously growing and evolving, and the Community Impact Fund is a way to address developing needs with flexible giving opportunities that directly support local causes.”

In honor of its 30th year anniversary, the Foundation is encouraging interested individuals to contribute at least $30 to support the fund’s establishment. Gifts will be part of an endowment dedicated in perpetuity to Fairfield County’s well-being, benefitting current residents and generations to come.
