Fairfield County Foundation Welcomes New Board Members

LANCASTER, Ohio --The Fairfield County Foundation has recently welcomed three new members to its Board of Trustees: Dean DeRolph, John McGraw and Woody Winfree.

"The Foundation is pleased to welcome these three community leaders to our Board of Trustees," said Amy Eyman, executive director of the Fairfield County Foundation. "They each bring their own unique perspectives about the community and we're looking forward to their contributions as members of the Foundation Board."

Dean DeRolph, owner of Kumler Collision and Automotive in Lancaster, is dedicated, both personally and through his companies, to supporting our community in any way possible. He is on the Advisory Board for Fairfield National Bank, a Trustee for St. Peter's Lutheran Church, a past chair for the United Way Campaign, a member of the Lancaster Port Authority, and has been recognized with the Lancaster Eagle Gazette/Lancaster Rotary Business Ethics Award.

John McGraw is a life-long Lancaster resident. He attended St. Mary Grade School, William V. Fisher Catholic High School and Ohio University Lancaster. McGraw began his career at his family's business, McGraw Oldsmobile, Inc., where he worked until General Motors phased out the Oldsmobile division in 2001. Following that, he joined Taylor Chevrolet and has worked as a sales consultant there for nearly 15 years. John serves on the Fisher Catholic High School Foundation, is an active member of the Lancaster Rotary Club and has served several terms on the Lancaster Fairfield County Chamber of Commerce Board.

C. Woodson "Woody" Winfree graduated from West Virginia University in 1979 with a Bachelor of Arts in business and a major in accounting. As owner of Winfree Insurance & Financial Services, Woody has been serving Pickerington and surrounding communities as a licensed insurance agent and a registered representative since 1997. He has served numerous local organizations, including terms as President and Treasurer of the Pickerington Chamber of Commerce, Treasurer for prior Pickerington Local School District funding campaigns, and Treasurer and Head of the Grounds Committee for the annual Violet Festival held in Pickerington each July.
